

11 Rubric

Friday, September 25, 2015 07:23

PTE English Language Assessment Rubric	Grammar/Spelling	Organization	Format/Legibility	Audience Awareness
5	Uses active voice, no spelling, tense or construction errors. Adheres to standard English Language arts standards.	Logically ordered with smooth and clear transitions that do not confuse or obfuscate. Order is clear, accessible and follows applicable standards. Uses "outline, draft, revision, final draft" process. (TF)	Always uses Industry Standard format. If handwritten, fully legible without difficulty. If typed correct fonts, margins, and layout. Appropriate length.	Always uses appropriate industry language. Refrains from use of slang. (TF)
4	Uses active voice. Minor grammatical errors, no spelling errors. Sound grammar construction.	Logically ordered. Flows from point to point without deviation. Uses "outline, draft, revision, final draft" process.	Uses Industry Standard format. If handwritten, legible. If typed correct fonts, margins, and layout. Appropriate length.	Seldom uses appropriate industry language. Refrains from use of slang. (TF)
3	Uses active voice for majority of text. Minor grammar or spelling errors. Minor grammatical construction errors.	Order is evident. Points flow one to another. Uses appropriate standards for organization. Uses some sort of revision process (TF)	Sometimes uses Industry Standard format. If handwritten, is sometimes legible. If typed, sometimes uses correct fonts, margins, and layout. Appropriate length. (AC)	Is Semi-formal in use of industry language and word usage. Slang is present. (TF)
2	Passive voice for majority of text. Grammar and spelling errors are present and/or repeated. Construction has verb/tense errors.	Ideas are evident but not clearly stated. No revision process is evident. Paragraphs are there but not properly structured. (TF)	Rarely.... (AC)	Rarely uses appropriate industry language and word usage. (TF)
1	Passive voice. Significant and repeated grammar and spelling errors. Construction is muddled and reader is confused.	Ideas are muddled. Lack of appropriate paragraphs/lists. Lacks logical flow. Stream of consciousness. Ideas not developed or even stated.	Illegible. Unprofessional font. No sentence structure. Industry format ignored. Inappropriate length.	Does not use appropriate industry or professional language. (TF)